London, Nov. 3 (2:30 p. m.)—The Copenhagen correspondent of The Evening News says that a German subject who heard Emperor William on a recent occasion when he addressed his troops, quotes his majesty as follows:

"We are now fighting for the life of Germany. They wish to kill Germany, but I say if we win—and we must win—a new empire shall arise more splendid than the world ever saw—a new Roman-German empire which shall rule the world, and the world shall be happy."

London, Nov. 3 (3:35 p. m.)—A dispatch from Moscow to Reuters' Telegram company says that Emperor Nicholas, in telegraphing his greeting to the Merchant association on the occasion of the opening of its session said:

"Peace only is possible when Russia reaches the heart of German soil. This is the unanimous opinion of all Muscovites. An apprehension of peace being concluded before the enemy is completely crushed is unfounded."

Paris, Nov. 3 (5:15 p. m.)—The Germans resumed their bombardment of the city of Rheims with great violence on Sunday and Monday, according to a dispatch to the Temps from Bordeaux.

Haye, Nov. 3, Via Paris (5:55 p. m.)—An official communication given out by the Belgian general staff dated November 2, 9:15 p. m., says:

"The enemy has fallen back towards the east, abandoning his dead and wounded."

"Our troops are holding the positions occupied yesterday."

"Our advance forces, which moved towards the Yser, are finding everywhere signs of precipitate retreat."

London, Nov. 3 (2:40 p. m.)—Star today publishes a dispatch from its Petrograd correspondent dated November 3, in which he says that the Russians are now securely established inside the Prussian frontier.

Emperor William's 30 miles of barbed wire fence around his big game preserves at Rominten, the correspondent goes on, is now in the possession of his enemies.

Paris, Nov. 3 (2:47 p. m.)—The French official announcement given out this afternoon, says the Germans would appear to have completely abandoned the left bank of the Yser below Dixmude and that troops of the allies have reoccupied points on the river without great difficulty.

The text of the communication follows:

"On the left wing the enemy seems to have completely abandoned the left bank of the Yser down stream from Dixmude and reconnaissances by troops of the allies have undertaken on the highways in the undisturbed regions were successful in re-occupying points of passage across the river without great difficulty."

"To the south of Dixmude and in the direction of Ghent, our advance was particularly perceptible."

"In the region to the north of the Yser, in spite of determined attacks by the Germans in considerable force, our front was everywhere maintained or re-assembled by the end of the day."

"Fresh attacks by the Germans on the environs of Arras and against Lihons and Lequesnoy-en-Santerre resulted in failure."

"On the center, in the region of the Aisne in the east of the forest of

Today's War Summary

The apology of the Turk for the assault of his fleet on Russian ports on the Black sea has not accomplished its purpose. Both Russia and Great Britain have undertaken active military measures against him and hostilities have begun on the Red sea.

In France the troops of Emperor William, frustrated in their persistent endeavors to advance along the coast, are now seeking a route more to the south and the fighting in Flanders is going on with determination of the allies and heavy onslaughts from the enemy.

"Further efforts on the part of the Germans in the forest of Argonne have been checked."

"We have continued to make progress to the northwest of Pont-a-Mousson."

"On our right wing there have been some engagements favorable to our arms along the river Seille."

ITALY PROHIBITS SHIPMENT OF GRAIN TO GERMANY

London, Nov. 3 (9:00 a. m.)—A Home dispatch to the Star states that a royal decree published there prohibits the exportation of rice, rye and potatoes to Germany and Austria.

LITTLE KNOWN OF THE EASTERN ZONE FIGHTING

Berlin, Nov. 3 (By Wireless)—The fighting in Poland continues, but no details of recent engagement are as yet available, according to reports reaching here from Vienna. It is not even known as yet whether these engagements have assumed important proportions. The Austrians still are pressing forward in the region between Stry-Sambor and Turka.

The advance in the Moza region in Servia today is not meeting with strong resistance. The Austrians have crossed the Sava-Gamna railroad and have stormed Sabac.

SUBMARINE WHICH SUNK
"HERMES" SAFE IN PORT

Berlin, Nov. 3 (Via The Hague and London, 9:50 a. m.)—The German submarine which compassed the destruction of the British cruiser Hermes off Dover last Saturday, has returned safely to port. This information is conveyed in an official announcement given out in Berlin relating the loss of the British warship. The name of the submarine which took part in the engagement is not given.

GERMANS STILL STAND FIRM
IN FACE OF AWFUL LOSSES

London, Nov. 3 (1:10 p. m.)—The Germans relentlessly are maintaining pressure on the allied line in West Flanders, where for more than a fortnight, in the face of the heavy heat losses of the war, they have been trying to drive through to the French coast.

The fight there has now assumed a stage where the invaders, military observers say, soon must begin to fall back on entrenched positions unless some progress be made. No man, however, can predict how many more troops the Germans stand ready yet to sacrifice in an endeavor to accomplish what is said to be the German emperor's supreme wish—to get to Calais.

Some dispatches say that the emperor himself has been with the troops in their assaults in the vicinity of Ypres. Others say he is coming soon.

That the Germans have not lost their morale is generously attested in today's account from the British headquarters at the front penned by Colonel E. D. Swinton, the author of all the descriptions of the operations in which the British forces have participated.

"It seems," he writes, "that success will favor the side which possesses the most endurance or can bring up and fling fresh forces into the fray."

The British have suffered heavily, he admits, which means that recruiting in England must go on unabated, if the gaps in the British ranks are to be filled. Of the Germans, Colonel Swinton says that despite enormous losses they "have so far been able to fill the gaps in the ranks and return to the charge."

The London newspapers today print long accounts of the heroism displayed by the London Scottish regiment, the first British territorial under fire, and the hope is expressed editorially that their deeds cannot but inspire other young men to enlist.

EYE WITNESS TELLS OF RE-MARKABLE TROOP MOVEMENT

London, Nov. 3 (11:30 a. m.)—Another eye witness account from the battle front in France and Belgium, written by Col. E. D. Swinton, of the intelligence department of the British general staff, was given out today.

The narrative gives an account of a remarkable transfer, during the course of a great battle, of British troops from the Aisne river to northeastern France, where the battle of the Somme had been fought, to an accompaniment of exploding shrapnel from the artillery of the enemy. Later President Poincaré and his minister of war had an interview with General Joffre, commander-in-chief of the French troops.

The White Star liner Olympic from New York, October 24, landed her passengers at Belfast this morning after being held up five days at Lough Swilly, on the north coast of Ireland, for fear of mines.

"What was implied in the actual withdrawal from contact with the enemy along the Aisne will be appreciated when the conditions under which we were then situated are recalled. In places the two lines were not 100 yards apart and for us no movement was possible during the daylight."

"On the left wing the enemy seems to have completely abandoned the left bank of the Yser down stream from Dixmude and reconnaissances by troops of the allies have undertaken on the highways in the undisturbed regions were successful in re-occupying points of passage across the river without great difficulty."

"To the south of Dixmude and in the direction of Ghent, our advance was particularly perceptible."
